Dear Fellow Stockholder:

It is my pleasure to invite you to the Unisys 1998 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. This year's meeting will be held on Thursday, April 23, 1998 at the Park Hyatt Philadelphia at the Bellevue, which is located at Broad and Walnut Streets in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m.

As you will note in our annual report to stockholders, we have much to celebrate this year. In 1997 our net income before one-time charges more than tripled over 1996. We continued to grow our services business, made great strides in reducing debt, and -- most important -- sharply increased shareholder value. And we're not slowing down. We are taking aggressive actions to accelerate our progress in 1998 by focusing on high-potential markets where we can grow profitably and help our customers be more successful.

Whether you plan to attend the annual meeting or not, I urge you to take a moment to vote on the items in this year's proxy statement. Please sign, date, and return the enclosed proxy card as soon as possible. It only takes a few minutes, and it will ensure that your shares are represented at the meeting.

I look forward to seeing you at the annual meeting and sharing my plans and vision for the "new Unisys."

Sincerely,

/s/ Lawrence A. Weinbach

PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

APRIL 23, 1998

The Board of Directors of Unisys Corporation ("Unisys" or the "Company") solicits your proxy for use at the 1998 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on April 23, 1998 and at any adjournment(s) thereof (the "Annual Meeting"). At the Annual Meeting, stockholders will be asked to elect directors, ratify the selection of independent auditors, approve an amendment to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Common Stock and consider and vote upon a stockholder proposal.

The record date for the Annual Meeting is February 23, 1998. Only holders of record of Unisys Common Stock as of the close of business on the record date are entitled to vote at the meeting. On the record date, 250,392,803 shares of Common Stock were outstanding. The presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority of those shares will constitute a quorum at the meeting.

This Proxy Statement, the accompanying form of proxy/voting instruction card and the annual report of Unisys, including 1997 financial statements, are being mailed on or about March 12, 1998.

VOTING

Each record holder of Unisys Common Stock as of the record date is entitled to cast one vote per share on each matter to be voted upon. Directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast. The amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation will be approved if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. Each of the other matters scheduled to come before the Annual Meeting will be approved if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of shares present, in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote on the matter. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as negative votes on the proposal to amend the Company's Certificate of Incorporation. For purposes of the matters requiring a majority vote of shares present and entitled to vote, abstentions will be included in the vote totals, and therefore will have the same effect as a negative vote. Broker non-votes will not be included in the vote totals for these matters and therefore will have no effect on the vote.

If you properly execute and return the enclosed proxy/voting instruction card, and do not revoke it, the proxy holders will vote the shares represented by the proxy in accordance with your instructions. If a properly executed proxy gives no instructions, the proxy holders will vote the shares represented thereby FOR the election of directors, FOR the selection of independent auditors, FOR the amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation, AGAINST the adoption of the stockholder proposal and in their discretion on any other matters that properly come before the Annual Meeting. You may revoke an executed proxy at any time prior to its exercise by giving notice in writing to the Secretary of Unisys or by voting in person at the meeting.

If you are a participant in the Unisys Savings Plan (the "Savings Plan"), the enclosed proxy/voting instruction card will serve as voting instructions to the Savings Plan trustee for any whole shares of Unisys Common Stock credited to your account as of February 23, 1998. The trustee will vote those shares in accordance with your instructions if it receives your signed proxy/voting instruction card by April 17, 1998. If you do not sign and return the proxy/voting instruction card in a timely manner, or if you give no instructions with respect to a matter to be voted upon, the trustee will vote the shares credited to your account in the same proportion as it votes those shares for which it received proper instructions from other participants.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors currently consists of 11 members, divided into three classes. One class of directors is elected each year to hold office for a three-year term. Three of the four directors whose terms expire in 1998, Henry C. Duques, Theodore E. Martin and Lawrence A. Weinbach, have been nominated for reelection. Under the Company's Bylaws, no person may be elected a director after having attained the age of 70. Alan E. Schwartz will therefore retire from the Board of Directors at the Annual Meeting, and the Board will then consist of ten members. The remaining seven directors will continue to serve as set forth below. Each of the nominees has agreed to serve as a director if elected, and Unisys believes that each nominee will be available to serve. However, the proxy holders have discretionary authority to cast votes for the election of a substitute should any nominee not be available to serve as a director.

BOARD MEETINGS

The Board of Directors held 15 meetings in 1997. During 1997, all directors attended at least 75 percent of the meetings of the Board of Directors and standing Committees on which they served.

COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors has a standing Audit Committee, Compensation and Organization Committee and Nominating Committee, as well as certain other committees.

The Audit Committee held four meetings in 1997. Its principal functions are to review compliance with Company policies, review internal control procedures, recommend to the Board of Directors the firm of independent auditors to serve the Company, review the scope, fees and results of the audit by the independent auditors and review the internal audit organization and annual audit plan. The members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Duderstadt, Martin and McClements.

The Compensation and Organization Committee held six meetings in 1997. Its principal functions are to review and approve remuneration of the Company's elected officers, evaluate performance, review and approve senior executive compensation programs, administer remuneration plans, including the Company's variable compensation plan and the 1990 Unisys Long-Term Incentive Plan (the "1990 Plan"), and review management succession and related matters. The members of the Compensation and Organization Committee are Messrs. Goodes, Huston and Macke.

The Nominating Committee held three meetings in 1997. All directors other than Mr. Weinbach are members of the Nominating Committee. The principal functions of the Nominating Committee are to identify and review candidates and recommend to the Board of Directors nominees for membership on the Board of Directors. In fulfilling this responsibility, the Nominating Committee will consider recommendations received from stockholders and other qualified sources. Stockholder recommendations must be in writing and addressed to the Chairman of the Nominating Committee, c/o Corporate Secretary, Unisys Corporation, Township Line and Union Meeting Roads, Blue Bell, Pennsylvania 19424. If a stockholder intends to make a nomination at an Annual Meeting, the Company's Bylaws require that the stockholder deliver a notice to the Company not less than 90 days prior to such meeting setting forth (i) the name, age, business and residence addresses of each nominee, (ii) the principal occupation or employment of each nominee, (iii) the number of shares of Unisys capital stock beneficially owned by each nominee, (iv) a statement that the nominee is willing to be nominated and (v) such other information concerning each nominee as would be required by the Securities and Exchange Commission in a proxy statement soliciting proxies for the election of such nominee.

The Board has also designated a standing Finance Committee and may establish other committees from time to time.

RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of its Audit Committee, has selected the firm of Ernst & Young LLP as independent auditors to audit the Company's books and accounts for the year ending December 31, 1998 and recommends ratification of such selection by the stockholders. Ernst & Young LLP has served as independent auditors for Unisys since the merger of Burroughs Corporation and Sperry Corporation in 1986, having previously served in that capacity for Sperry Corporation. Its representatives will be present at the Annual Meeting and will have the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and to respond to appropriate questions asked by stockholders.

The Board of Directors considers Ernst & Young LLP to be well qualified to serve as the independent auditors for Unisys. If, however, stockholders do not ratify the selection of Ernst & Young LLP, the Board will reconsider the appointment.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE PROPOSAL TO RATIFY THE SELECTION OF ERNST & YOUNG LLP AS INDEPENDENT AUDITORS FOR 1998. PROXIES SOLICITED BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS WILL BE SO VOTED UNLESS STOCKHOLDERS OTHERWISE SPECIFY IN THEIR PROXIES.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

The Board of Directors has unanimously approved, and recommends that stockholders consider and approve, an amendment to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation to increase the aggregate number of authorized shares of Common Stock from 360,000,000 to 720,000,000. The amendment would not change the authorized amount of the Company's preferred stock.

If the amendment is approved by the stockholders, the first sentence of Section 1 of Article IV of the Certificate of Incorporation would be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. The total number of shares of all classes of stock which the Corporation shall have authority to issue is 760,000,000, divided into two classes consisting of 720,000,000 shares of Common Stock, par value $.01 per share ("Common Stock"), and 40,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, par value $1 per share ("Preferred Stock").

As of March 1, 1998, the Company had approximately 250,000,000 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding and had reserved approximately 81,000,000 shares for issuance upon the conversion of shares of preferred stock and other convertible securities and in connection with the Company's various employee benefit and compensation plans. This leaves approximately 29,000,000 authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock available for future use.

The Board of Directors believes that an increase in the number of authorized shares of Common Stock is necessary to provide the Company with additional flexibility to meet its future business needs. If the proposed amendment is approved by the stockholders, the Company will have additional shares available for acquisitions, equity financings, equity compensation plans, stock dividends or stock splits and other corporate purposes. The additional shares would be available for issuance without further stockholder approval, except as may be required by applicable law or the rules of the New York Stock Exchange. Although the Company does not have any commitment or understanding at this time for the issuance of additional shares of Common Stock (other than as permitted or required under the Company's employee benefit plans), the proposed amendment should enable the Company to take timely advantage of favorable opportunities and market conditions when they arise.

Holders of Unisys Common Stock have no preemptive rights with respect to any additional shares of Common Stock. The issuance of such additional shares could have a dilutive effect on earnings per share of the Common Stock and on the equity and voting power of those holding

Common Stock at the time of issuance. In addition, the proposed amendment could have an anti-takeover effect, as additional shares of Common Stock could be issued to dilute the stock ownership and voting power of, or increase the cost to, a person seeking to obtain control of the Company. However, the amendment is not being proposed in response to any known effort to accumulate Common Stock or obtain control of the Company.

Although the proposed increase in the number of authorized shares of Common Stock is not intended for anti-takeover purposes, the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission require disclosure of charter, bylaw and other provisions that could have an anti-takeover effect. These include: (i) a classified Board of Directors, (ii) the requirement of a supermajority vote for the removal of directors, (iii) a fair price provision requiring a supermajority vote for certain business transactions involving a significant stockholder, (iv) a prohibition on stockholder actions by written consent and on stockholder calls of special meetings, (v) an advance notice provision for director nominations and (vi) a stockholder rights plan.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock will be required to adopt the proposed amendment.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE PROPOSAL TO AMEND THE CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION. PROXIES SOLICITED BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS WILL BE SO VOTED UNLESS STOCKHOLDERS OTHERWISE SPECIFY IN THEIR PROXIES.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSAL

The New York City Teachers' Retirement System, c/o The City of New York Office of the Comptroller, 1 Centre Street, New York, NY 10007-2341, beneficial owner of 226,400 shares of Unisys Common Stock, has proposed the adoption of the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the shareholders of Unisys Corporation request that the Board of Directors amend the certificate of incorporation to reinstate the rights of the shareholders to take action by written consent and to call special meetings.

SUPPORTING STATEMENT OF THE PROPONENT

The rights of the shareholders to take action by written consent and to call special meetings should not be abridged.

The Company's elimination of these rights, in our opinion, effectively removes important processes by which shareholders can act expeditiously to protect their investment interests.

For example, the right of shareholders to act to remove incumbent directors for egregious conduct should not be limited to the annual meeting. Also, shareholders should not be prevented from giving timely consideration to a bidder's proposal to acquire control of the company, or a dissident shareholders' slate of nominees for election to the Board of Directors, because such proposals are required to be presented only at the annual meeting.

STATEMENT OF UNISYS IN OPPOSITION TO STOCKHOLDER PROPOSAL

The Company's Certificate of Incorporation and/or Bylaws (collectively, the "Corporate Documents") (i) require the Company to hold an annual meeting of stockholders each year, (ii) prohibit stockholder action by written consent and (iii) allow special meetings to be called only by a majority of the Board of Directors. The proposed amendments would allow stockholders to call special meetings and to act by written consent without a meeting for any reason and at any time. The Board believes that adoption of these amendments would undermine, rather than foster, stockholder democracy, would be disruptive and would impose significant administrative and financial burdens.

The Board believes that permitting stockholders to solicit written consents on any matter at any time would be both confusing and disruptive in a publicly held corporation with more than 250,000,000 shares outstanding and more than 37,000 stockholders of record. In addition, amending the Corporate Documents to permit written consents could disenfranchise many stockholders. Under the current provisions in the Corporate Documents, which prohibit stockholder action by written consent, all the stockholders of the Company have the opportunity to participate in meetings called to determine proposed actions. These provisions thus allow the opportunity for discussion and increase the ability of all stockholders to have their views considered. The proposed amendments, on the other hand, would make it possible for the holders of a simple majority of voting shares to use the consent procedure to take action without a meeting and before all arguments can be heard. The Board believes that this does not further stockholder democracy.

At the annual meeting of stockholders, which is already required by the Corporate Documents, stockholders have an opportunity to raise any appropriate matter. Allowing stockholders to call an unlimited number of special meetings for any reason and at any time would be disruptive to the conduct of business and would impose significant administrative and financial burdens on the Company. Special meetings are costly in terms of both time and money. Each of the thousands of holders of the Company's common stock must receive proxy materials for every special meeting. This involves legal, printing and postage expense, in addition to those costs normally associated with the Company's annual meeting. In addition, preparing for a stockholder meeting requires significant attention from corporate officers and employees, diverting them from running the business. The current provisions in the Corporate Documents, which allow only the Board of Directors to call special meetings, ensure the orderly conduct of corporate affairs. They also prevent a minority of the shares from imposing upon the Company the burden and expense of a stockholder meeting that may not be desired by the majority.

For the reasons stated above, the Board of Directors believes that the proposed amendments are not in the best interests of the Company or its stockholders.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "AGAINST" THE ADOPTION OF THE FOREGOING STOCKHOLDER PROPOSAL. PROXIES SOLICITED BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS WILL BE SO VOTED UNLESS STOCKHOLDERS OTHERWISE SPECIFY IN THEIR PROXIES.

LONG-TERM INCENTIVE PLAN AWARDS

On September 23, 1997, Lawrence A. Weinbach received an award of 169,762 restricted shares of Unisys Common Stock under the 1990 Plan. The grant vested 25% on September 23, 1997. The remaining restricted shares will vest in installments over the three-year period ending September 23, 2000, provided Mr. Weinbach remains in the employ of Unisys. Restricted shares may be voted and will receive dividends if and to the extent that dividends are paid on unrestricted shares of Unisys Common Stock. They may not be sold or pledged until the award vests.

PENSION PLANS

The table below shows the aggregate annual amounts at age 65 that would be received from the Unisys Pension Plan (the "Pension Plan"), the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (the "Supplemental Plan") and the Elected Officer Pension Plan (the "Officer Plan").

The Pension Plan and Supplemental Plan generally are available to all employees located in the United States. The Officer Plan is available to officers, including the Named Officers, who satisfy certain minimum service requirements. The aggregate pension amount payable under the Officer Plan is offset by benefits paid under the Pension Plan, the Supplemental Plan and any applicable subsidiary plan. The amounts shown in the table are computed on a single life annuity basis and are subject to a reduction equal to 50% of the participant's primary social security benefit.

Final Average Compensation generally corresponds to the amounts shown in the Summary Compensation Table under the headings Salary and Bonus. However, Final Average Compensation is calculated using the individual's highest 60 consecutive months of compensation out of the final 120 months of employment and thus will differ somewhat from the amounts shown in the Summary Compensation Table. Final Average Compensation for the eligible Named Officers as of March 1, 1998 is as follows: J. A. Unruh - $1,378,803; G. A. Gagliardi - $428,691; G. R. Gazerwitz - $419,168; L. C. Russell - $679,715; H. S. Barron - $481,450. Full years of credited service under the pension plans for the eligible Named Officers as of March 1, 1998 are as follows: J. A. Unruh - 16 years; G. A. Gagliardi - 26 years; G. R. Gazerwitz - 16 years; L. C. Russell - 2 years; H. S. Barron - 7 years.

Pursuant to the employment agreement described below, Lawrence A. Weinbach is vested in an annual pension benefit as follows: 0-3 years of service - $350,000; 4 years - $570,000; 5 years - $710,000; 6 years - $860,000; 7 or more years - $1,000,000.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

On September 23, 1997, the Company entered into a five-year employment agreement with Lawrence A. Weinbach, covering the terms and conditions of Mr. Weinbach's employment as Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer. The agreement provides for a minimum base salary of $1,200,000 per year, subject to annual review by the Compensation and Organization Committee, and eligibility for an annual bonus award at a target bonus level of not less than 100% of base salary. The actual bonus payable, if any, is to be determined by the Compensation and Organization Committee in its sole discretion, except that, for the 1997, 1998 and 1999 award years, Mr. Weinbach is guaranteed a minimum bonus equal to 100% of the base salary paid to him in that year. Under the agreement, Mr. Weinbach also received a one-time bonus in the amount of $1,500,000 at the time his employment commenced. Mr. Weinbach is eligible to participate in the benefit programs generally made available to executive officers, is entitled to the pension benefits discussed above and is eligible to receive stock option and other long-term incentive awards under the 1990 Plan. Effective as of his first day of employment, Mr. Weinbach received the stock option grant disclosed on page 11 and the restricted share award described on page 12. He also purchased Unisys Common Stock having a fair market value of $1,000,000 from the Company. If Mr. Weinbach's employment is terminated under certain circumstances, the agreement provides for him to receive continued payment of his base salary for the remainder of the term (but in no event less than one year's base salary) and, for the one-year period following the date of termination, a bonus in an amount equal to his target bonus percentage times the base salary paid during such period. He will also be entitled to continued medical and dental coverage through the remaining term of the agreement, full vesting in outstanding awards under the 1990 Plan and one additional year of service for pension purposes. Salary continuation amounts paid to Mr. Weinbach after two years from the date of employment termination will be reduced by the amount of any cash compensation he earns for services rendered to any entity other than Unisys. Mr. Weinbach is also party to a change in control agreement with the Company, as described on page 14. He is not entitled to receive duplicate payments under the change in control agreement and his employment agreement.

Effective November 1995, the Company entered into a three-year employment agreement with Lawrence C. Russell, covering the terms and conditions of his employment as Executive Vice President of Unisys and President of Unisys Information Services. The agreement provides for an annual base salary of $450,000, subject to annual review, and eligibility for an annual bonus under the Unisys Executive Variable Compensation Plan at a target of not less than 60% of base salary. The agreement provides that the actual bonus amount can vary from zero to 150% of target. Mr. Russell is eligible to participate in the benefit programs generally made available to executive officers and is eligible to receive stock option and other long-term incentive awards under the 1990 Plan. The agreement provides that, if Mr. Russell remains employed with the Company on the applicable payment date, the Company will make periodic payments, totaling $700,000, through the year 2000, to compensate Mr. Russell for the value of incentives forfeited from his previous employment. If the Company terminates Mr. Russell's employment other than for cause, he will be entitled to receive continued payment of his base salary and bonus for the remainder of the term of the agreement (with a minimum of one year's salary plus bonus). He will also be entitled to immediate vesting of all outstanding awards under the 1990 Plan, a lump-sum payment of any remaining incentive forfeiture installments and continued medical and dental coverage through the remaining agreement term. Mr. Russell is also party to a change in control agreement. He is not entitled to receive duplicate payments under the change in control agreement and his employment agreement.

The Company and James A. Unruh, former Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, are parties to an agreement dated July 2, 1997. The agreement provides for Mr. Unruh to receive, during the period beginning July 2, 1997 and ending April 30, 1998 (the "Term"), a base salary at the annual rate of $836,000. Under the agreement, Mr. Unruh was also entitled to receive a bonus award for 1997 at the discretion of the Compensation and Organization Committee of the Board of Directors. For a period of two years following the completion of the Term, Mr. Unruh will be entitled to receive termination payments consisting of base salary continuation at the annual rate of $836,000 and an annual bonus equal to 50% of that amount. Amounts payable by the Company during the second year following completion of the Term will be reduced by the amount earned by Mr. Unruh for services rendered to any entity other than Unisys. Under the agreement, Mr. Unruh is entitled to full vesting on April 30, 1998 of all outstanding awards under the 1990 Plan and an extension of the repayment period on his home mortgage loan.

CHANGE IN CONTROL EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

The Company has entered into change in control employment agreements with its executive officers including the Named Officers. The agreements are intended to retain the services of these executives and provide for continuity of management in the event of any actual or threatened change in control. A change in control is generally defined as (i) the acquisition of 20% or more of Unisys Common Stock, (ii) a change in the majority of the Board of Directors unless approved by the incumbent directors (other than as a result of a contested election) and (iii) certain reorganizations, mergers, consolidations, liquidations or dissolutions. Each agreement has a term ending on the third anniversary of the date of the change in control. These agreements, which are the same in substance for each executive, provide that in the event of a change in control each executive will have specific rights and receive certain benefits. Those benefits include the right to continue in the Company's employ during the term, performing comparable duties to those being performed immediately prior to the change in control and at compensation and benefit levels that are at least equal to the compensation and benefit levels in effect immediately prior to the change in control. Upon a termination of employment under certain circumstances following a change in control, the terminated executive will be entitled to receive special termination benefits, including a lump sum payment equal to three years base salary and bonus and the actuarial value of the pension benefit the executive would have accrued had the executive remained employed for three years following the termination date. The special termination benefits are payable if the Company terminates the executive without cause, the executive terminates employment for certain enumerated reasons (including a reduction in the executive's compensation or responsibilities or a change in the executive's job location), or the executive voluntarily terminates employment for any reason during the 30-day period following the first anniversary of the date of the change in control. If any payment or distribution by the Company to the executive is determined to be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, the executive is entitled to receive a payment on an after-tax basis equal to the excise tax imposed. The executive is under no obligation to mitigate amounts payable under these agreements, and to the extent the executive has a separate employment agreement with the Company with conflicting rights, the executive is allowed the greater entitlement.

INDEBTEDNESS OF MANAGEMENT

The Company has made no-interest loans to certain of its executive officers. The loans, which were made in connection with the officer's purchase of a principal residence upon relocation, are generally for a 20-year term (assuming continued employment with the Company), are evidenced by promissory notes and are secured by second mortgages. Mr. Russell has a four-year, interest-free loan secured by a first mortgage. The maximum amounts outstanding during the period between January 1, 1997 and March 1, 1998 for each of the following were: J. F. McHale, $122,500; L. C. Russell, $283,000; J. A. Unruh, $245,000. Mr. McHale's loan is no longer outstanding. The principal amounts of Mr. Unruh's and Mr. Russell's loans as of March 1, 1998 were $130,000 and $212,250, respectively.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

The Company's non-employee directors receive an annual retainer of $35,000, an annual attendance fee of $10,000 for regularly scheduled Board and Committee meetings and a meeting fee of $1,000 for attendance at each Board and Committee meeting held on other than a regularly scheduled meeting day. The annual retainer and annual meeting fee are paid in monthly installments, with 50% of each installment paid in cash and 50% in the form of common stock equivalent units ("Stock Units"). The value of each Stock Unit at any point in time is equal to the value of one share of Unisys Common Stock. Stock Units are recorded in a memorandum account maintained for each director. A director's Stock Unit account is payable upon termination of service, or at any date at least five years after the Stock Units are awarded, in either cash or common stock at the election of the director. Directors do not have the right to vote with respect to any Stock Units. Directors also have the opportunity to defer until termination of service, or until any date at least five years after the deferral, all or a portion of their cash fees. Any deferred cash amounts, and earnings or losses thereon, are recorded in a memorandum account maintained for each director. The right to receive future payments of Stock Unit accounts and deferred cash accounts is an unsecured claim against the Company's general assets. Directors who are employees of the Company do not receive any cash or Stock Units for their services as directors.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION AND ORGANIZATION COMMITTEE

COMPENSATION PROGRAM AND POLICIES

The Company's executive compensation program is administered by the Compensation and Organization Committee (the "Committee"). The Committee reviews compensation levels of elected officers, evaluates performance, considers management succession and related matters and administers the Company's incentive plans, including the Executive Variable Compensation Plan (the "EVC Plan") and the 1990 Plan.

The Company's executive compensation program is designed to attract and retain executives responsible for the Company's long-term success, to reward executives for achieving both financial and strategic company goals, to align executive and stockholder interests through long-term, equity-based plans and to provide a compensation package that recognizes individual contributions as well as overall business results. As a result, a substantial portion of each executive's total compensation is intended to be variable and to be tied closely to the performance of Unisys and the executive's business unit, as well as the attainment of the executive's individual goals. The Company's executive compensation program also takes into account the compensation practices of companies with whom Unisys competes for executive talent. These companies (the "peer companies") include the principal companies included in the peer group indices in the Performance Graph on page 18 of this Proxy Statement and additional companies in various industries.

The three key components of the Company's executive compensation program for 1997 were base salary, short-term incentive payments and long-term incentive awards in the form of stock options. Overall compensation is intended to be competitive for comparable positions at the peer companies.

The Company's policies with respect to each of the elements of its executive compensation program, as well as the basis for the compensation awarded to the current and former chief executive officer, are discussed below.

BASE SALARY

Each executive's base salary is initially determined with reference to competitive pay practices and is dependent upon the executive's level of responsibility and experience. The Committee uses its discretion, rather than a formal weighting system, to evaluate these factors and to determine individual base salary levels. Thereafter, base salaries are reviewed periodically, and increases are made based on the Committee's subjective assessment of individual performance, as well as the factors discussed above.

SHORT-TERM INCENTIVE PAYMENTS

For 1997, all of the Company's executive officers participated in the EVC Plan. This plan's stated purpose is to motivate and reward elected officers and other key executives for the attainment of individual and/or corporate performance goals. Under the plan, the Committee has the discretion to determine the conditions (including performance objectives) applicable to annual award payments and the amounts of such awards. With respect to current executives other than Mr. Weinbach, awards under the plan for 1997 were generally determined as follows.

Early in 1997, executives were assigned target award amounts for the year, which were typically stated as a percentage of base salary (ranging, in the case of elected officers other than the chief executive officer, from 45% to 60%). Performance goals were also established based upon the financial performance of both Unisys and the executive's business unit (generally, achievement of pre-established profit, cash flow and revenue objectives) and upon individual performance objectives. Actual award amounts could range from zero to 150% of target, depending upon the Committee's evaluation of individual and corporate/business unit performance. In 1997, the Company substantially met the performance goals established for the year. Awards paid for 1997 reflected these results plus individual accomplishments.

LONG-TERM INCENTIVE AWARDS

Under the 1990 Plan, stock options may be granted to the Company's executive officers and other key employees. The size of stock option awards is based primarily on the individual's responsibilities and position with Unisys. The Committee does not determine the size of such awards by reference to the amount or value of stock options currently held by an executive officer.

Stock options are designed to align the interests of executives with those of stockholders. Stock options are granted with an exercise price equal to the market price of Unisys Common Stock on the date of grant, and current grants vest over four years. This approach is designed to encourage the creation of stockholder value over the long term since no benefit is realized unless the price of the Common Stock rises over a number of years.

COMPENSATION OF THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Lawrence A. Weinbach became the Company's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer on September 23, 1997. In connection with his employment, the Company entered into the employment agreement described at page 13. The terms and conditions of the employment agreement were approved by the Committee after consideration of Mr. Weinbach's qualifications and experience, his previous compensation levels and the competitive marketplace for executive talent.

Under the employment agreement, Mr. Weinbach is entitled to a base salary at the rate of $1,200,000 per year and, for 1997, 1998 and 1999, is guaranteed a minimum annual bonus equal to 100% of the base salary paid to him in that year. Given the marked improvement in the Company's profile under Mr. Weinbach's leadership, the Committee awarded him a bonus of $492,000, or 150% of base salary, for 1997. Under the agreement, Mr. Weinbach also received a one-time bonus in the amount of $1,500,000 at the time his employment began and was granted the stock options and restricted share awards described on pages 11 and 12.

For 1997, James A. Unruh, the Company's former chief executive officer, received a base salary of $836,000. This had been Mr. Unruh's salary since 1996. Pursuant to the agreement described at page 14, Mr. Unruh was also entitled to receive a bonus award for 1997 at the discretion of the Committee. For 1997, the Committee awarded Mr. Unruh a bonus of $418,000, or 50% of salary, in recognition of his role in the transformation of Unisys and in effecting a smooth transition to his successor. In April 1997, as in the past several years, Mr. Unruh received options to purchase 180,000 shares of Unisys Common Stock.

DEDUCTIBILITY OF EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code imposes a $1 million annual limit on the amount of compensation that may be deducted by the Company with respect to each Named Officer employed as of the last day of the applicable year. The limitation does not apply to compensation based on the attainment of objective performance goals. The Committee has considered the impact of the deduction limitation and has determined that it is not in the best interests of the Company or its stockholders to base compensation solely on objective performance criteria. Rather, the Committee believes that it should retain the flexibility to base compensation on its subjective evaluation of performance as well as on the attainment of objective goals.

GENERAL AND OTHER MATTERS

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

During 1996, George R. Gazerwitz received a grant of restricted stock units while he was on assignment overseas. These units were inadvertently omitted from Mr. Gazerwitz's Form 4 filings for 1996. The filings have been corrected.

POLICY ON CONFIDENTIAL VOTING

It is the Company's policy that all stockholder proxies, ballots and voting materials that identify the vote of a specific stockholder shall, if requested by that stockholder on such proxy, ballot or materials, be kept permanently confidential and shall not be disclosed to the Company, its affiliates, directors, officers and employees or to any third parties, except as may be required by law, to pursue or defend legal proceedings or to carry out the purpose of, or as permitted by, the policy. Under the policy, vote tabulators and inspectors of election are to be independent parties who are unaffiliated with and are not employees of the Company. The policy provides that it may, under certain circumstances, be suspended in the event of a proxy solicitation in opposition to a solicitation of management. The Company may at any time be informed whether or not a particular stockholder has voted. Comments written on proxies or ballots, together with the name and address of the commenting stockholder, will also be made available to the Company.
